Membership Packages & Registration Form

Total Arts Package (TAP): $150 per Month. This Package is by far the best package in town and can be started any time of the year (Sept.-June). It allows the student access to unlimited LYAC classes Monday–Thursday and includes all Productions, Teen Dramas and Jr. Musical Workshops (some productions require an audition and additional $50 program fee). Effective July 1, 2010 this package requires a minimum four-month commitment. A written notice to cancel is required the month prior to the last month of the membership. Please note any notice given on the 1st or later will result in one more month of membership fees. Anyone who drops out before they complete their commitment will be charge for the remaining month(s) of the membership at the time they leave the program. Anyone in a current show cannot give notice until the show comes to a close.

Show Only Package: $450 for one Main Stage Production (plus a $50 program fee, which will be returned if the student sells $50 or more in program ads). This package entitles the student to one Main Stage Production. It does not include any classes offered at LYAC. There are no refunds for dropouts as well as no refunds for tickets already purchased for productions. Costumes are provided, but students provide their own shoes and sometimes regular street clothes. (Online Registration Only)

Jr. Company (Ages 5-12): $400 for one child/session. This package offers a junior version of a musical where every child gets a singing or acting part. The program focuses on getting children familiar with the theatre process and getting them use to being on stage. Rehearsals are held once a week, either on Wednesday or Friday nights from 4:45-6pm with leads staying until 6:30pm. The week before the show the student will be required to attend all technical rehearsals, which are usually 3-4 nights for the last week.

Protégé: $825 per 5-month semester plus a $50 registration fee & $50 program fee (current Protege members do not have to re-pay the reg. fee). You must audition and be accepted into this intensive program for the most talented and hard-working students ages 13-19. Each student is challenged to improve their talents through training, practice and participation in all aspects of a production both on-stage and behind-the-scenes. This program runs from September-January and February-June. Once accepted into the program you will not have to re-audition as long as you remain a member and are following the guidelines for Protégé. If you choose to drop out after accepting your spot and you are on monthly payments you are still required to pay the total fee of the program. If there are spots open at the end of a semester an audition will be held.

Class Pass Package: $300 for 12 LYAC classes. If you are not sure your child can commit to the other packages this is the package for you. This package entitles the students to try our classes on a short-term basis. The student is welcomed to attend any class offered Monday-Thursday for 12 sessions. This package expires six months from the purchase date (excluding July and Aug.)

Private Lessons: Members and non-members are welcomed. We offer private lessons in acting, dance, voice, piano, guitar and bass. Lessons cost $50 -half an hour and $70 -50 minutes.

Important show and membership information

Show requirements:

1. You cannot miss more than two rehearsals per production and cannot miss any technical rehearsal. If more than two rehearsals are missed you may be asked to leave the production. Please check your child's schedule before enrolling in our program.
2. If you are going to miss a rehearsal and it is not on your conflict sheet please send an email to office@Lytshows.org to let us know you will not be at rehearsal. Please give us 24-hour notice.
3. If you need to report an absence due to an illness and it is the day of rehearsal please call the office and leave a message. Do not call if you are running late.
4. Conflict sheet: if you have an absence already marked down on your conflict sheet there is no need to remind us of this conflict as we will have it already marked in our attendance book.
5. If after you are cast in our production you take on another commitment (another show, soccer, dance team, etc...) and this changes the conflicts you have originally given LYAC you may be removed from the production.
6. Costumes are included, but students will need to provide their own shoes, make-up and occasionally regular street and/or dance clothes and accessories.
7. Tickets must be purchased to all performances, including children ages 3 and up. We strongly discourage children under age 3 coming to shows, as it is distracting to our guests and performers.
8. Email is the way we communicate everything from schedules to rehearsal changes so please make sure we have the emails you want us to use.
9. Remember to print up or make note of emails that have changes to the schedule. LYAC will not be responsible for resending out this information due to lost or deleted emails.

Cancelling a membership:

1. Show only/Jr. Workshop package are non-refundable. If your child chooses not to continue in the show there will not be any refund and you will forfeit the $50 program fee if given as well as any tickets already purchased.
2. Total Arts Package: Effective July 1, 2010 this membership now requires a minimum four-month commitment. A written notice is required to cancel this membership. Please note if you give your written notice we must receive it before the first of the month so that we can take your credit card off of the automatic withdrawal and then apply the last month deposit given during registration for the following month. Please note if your child chooses to quit during a show or during the four-month commitment you will still be responsible to pay for the remainder of the four-month commitment or through the end of the month that the show goes up.

I understand that my tuition is to be paid either in full directly to the Studio or in monthly installments due on the same day of each month to the Studio or it's "Agent". Any modifications, changes, amendments or cancellations of this student enrollment agreement must be in writing. Emails are acceptable, but only if you have an acknowledgment reply email from an LYAC representative stating your notice was received. No oral amendments or modifications are to be made to the student enrollment agreement. I further understand that my failure to attend the facility or complete the classes and/or productions does not relieve me of any obligations to pay the tuition in full. The budgeted tuition payment plan is not affected by my attendance. I agree to be a member of this facility and to take part in the package I selected on page one of this contract.

All LYAC classes are subject to change or cancellation due to low attendance, weather and inability to find a substitute due to illness of an instructor or current production conflicts.

I, the student/parent/guardian acknowledge receiving a copy of this agreement/contract and understand the enrollment contract stated above. I have read, understand and agree to LYAC's show requirements, cancellation policies and rules. By signing this contract I, the student/parent/guardian agree to have read, agree and fully understand the commitment of the package I, the student/parent/guardian has signed up for and will abide by all the show requirements, rules and policies set forth by LYAC.
